

Women Who Wear Well.

It is astonishing how great a change a few years of married life often make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the brilliancy vanish like the bloom from a peach which is rudely handled. The matron is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. There are two reasons for this change, ignorance and neglect. Few young women appreciate the shock to the system through the change which comes with marriage and motherhood. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant pelvic drains and weaknesses which too often come with marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the cheek of its freshness and the form of its fairness.

As surely as the general health suffers when there is derangement of the health of the delicate woman's organs, so surely when these organs are established in health the face and form of once witness to the fact in renewed comeliness. Nearly a million women have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Ingredients on label—entirely natural, no alcohol, no harmful habit-forming drugs. Made wholly of those native, American, medicinal roots most highly recommended by leading medical authorities of all the several schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments.

For nursing mothers for whose broken-down health by too frequent bearing of children, also for the expectant mothers, to prepare the system for the coming of baby and making its advent easy and almost painless, there is no medicine quite so good as "Favorite Prescription." It can do no harm in any condition of the system. It is a most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening nerve agent adapted to woman's delicate system by a physician of large experience in the treatment of woman's peculiar ailments.

A MISSOURI WOMAN

Tells a Story of Awful Suffering and Wonderful Relief.

Mrs. J. D. Johnson, of 603 West Hickman St., Columbia, Mo., says: "Following an operation two years ago, dropsy set in, and my left side was so swollen the doctor said he would have to tap out the water. There was constant pain and a gurgling sensation around my heart, and I could not raise my arm above my head. The kidney action was disordered and passages of the secretions too frequent. On the advice of my husband I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. Since using two boxes my trouble has not reappeared. This is wonderful, after suffering two years."

The Work of a Great Daily Paper.

In the development of a State or section it is impossible to overestimate the influence for good exerted by a great newspaper, such, for instance, as The Daily American, of Nashville, Tennessee. Tennessee, at large, and Nashville in particular, owe more to The American than most people would grant before giving the matter proper thought. It has, during all the years of its existence, stood solidly for the best interests and the fullest development of its city and State along all lines, political, civic, industrial and educational. Truly the influence of this progressive paper has been a tremendous force, and its work has borne fruit in making known to the outside world the natural resources of Tennessee. Only the loyal support of the people can repay it for the excellent service it has rendered.

No sin satisfies Satan better than spiritual indifference. So. 47-706.

CRISIS OF GIRLHOOD

A TIME OF PAIN AND PERIL

Miss Emma Cole Says that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has Saved Her Life and Made Her Well.

How many lives of beautiful young girls have been sacrificed just as they were ripening into womanhood! How many irregularities or displacements have been developed at this important period, resulting in years of suffering!

Miss Emma Cole

A mother should come to her child's aid at this critical time and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will prepare the system for the coming change and start this trying period in a young girl's life without pain or irregularities.

Miss Emma Cole of Tallahoma, Tenn., writes: "I want to tell you that I am enjoying better health than I have for years, and I owe it all to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

"When fourteen years of age I suffered almost constant pain, and for two or three years I had soreness and pain in my side, backaches and was dizzy and nervous, and doctors all failed to help me."

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended, and after taking it my health began to improve rapidly, and I think it saved my life. I sincerely hope my experience will be a help to other girls who are passing from girlhood to womanhood, for I know your Compound will do as much for them."

"If you know of any young girl who is sick and needs motherly advice ask her to write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., and she will receive free advice which will put her on the right road to a strong, healthy and happy womanhood. Lydia E. Pinkham is daughter-in-law of Lydia B. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising sick women free of charge."

ECZEMA AFFLICTS FAMILY.

Father and Five Children Suffered For Two Years With Terrible Eczema—Wonderful Cure by Cuticura.

"My husband and five children were all afflicted with eczema. They had it two years. We used all the home remedies we could hear of, without any relief, and then went to a physician and got medicine two different times, and it got worse. It afflicted us all over except head and hands. We saw Cuticura Remedies advertised and concluded to try them. So I sent for $1.00 worth, consisting of one cake of Cuticura Soap, one box of Ointment and one trial of Pills, and we commenced to use them. I do not know how to express my joy in finding a cure, for two of my children were so bad that they have the brown scars on their bodies where they were sore. Mrs. Maggie B. Hill, Stevens, Mason Co., W. Va., June 12, 1905."

Bachelors.

"Bachelors can be found roaming at large in all parts of the world. They inhabit apartments, clubs, open fields, bodies of water and music halls. They are also seen behind the scenes. They hover, at times near front gates, and have been found in back parlors with the end of a searchlight."

"Bachelors are nomads by nature and variable in their tastes, never going with one girl long enough to be dangerous."

"Bachelors make love easily, but rarely keep it. Rich bachelors are hunted openly and shamelessly, and are always in great danger. Those who finally escape are, as a rule, useless ever afterwards."—Tom Masson, in the December Delineator.

A Nice Distinction.

"Hello! what dropped you here?" exclaimed the man in the next county.

"It wasn't a drop-kick at all," feebly replied the poor fellow who had been monkeying with a mule. "I'm sure it was a punt."

A Stronger Feeling.

"I'm sorry, Mr. Subber," said the merchant, "but business has become so dull I'll have to lay you off. I hope you feel resigned to the inevitable."

"Resigned?" gasped the clerk. "I feel fired."

COFFEE IMPORTERS

Publish a Book About Coffee.

There has been much discussion as to coffee and Postum lately, so much in fact, that some of the coffee importers and roasters have taken to type to promote the sale of their wares and check if possible the rapid growth of the use of Postum Food Coffee.

In the coffee importers' book a chapter is headed "Coffee as a Medicine," and advocates its use as such. Here is an admission of the truth, most important to all interested.

Every physician knows, and every thoughtful person should know, that habitual use of any "medicine" of the drug-stimulant type of coffee or whisky quickly causes irritation of the tissues and organs stimulated and finally sets up disease in the great majority of cases if persisted in. It may show in any one of the many organs of the body and in the great majority of cases can be directly traced to coffee in a most unmistakable way by leaving off the active irritant—coffee—and using Postum Food Coffee for a matter of 10 days. If the result is relief from nervous trouble, dyspepsia, bowel complaint, heart failure, weak eyes, or any other malady set up by a poisoned nervous system, you have your answer with the accuracy of a demonstration in mathematics. "There's a reason" for Postum.

THE PULPIT

BY THE REV. IRA W. HENDERSON, SERMON THE FAMOUS DIVINE.

Subject: "Profit and Loss."

Brooklyn, N. Y.—Preaching at the Irving Square Presbyterian Church on the theme, "Profit and Loss," the Rev. I. W. Henderson, pastor, took as his text Mark 8:36. "For what doth a man gain the whole world and forfeit his life?" He said: "World and forfeit his life."

Jesus draws the picture with strength and in a startling manner. What doth it profit a man if, in the end, he shall have gained control over the sum total of the material things in the universe and have forfeited his soul life with God? The question is between getting and losing, which consists in having and that which consists in being. The question is whether or not our efforts shall tend to self-aggrandizement or to soul culture. Shall we devote our larger and finer energies to the attainment of possessions which are of use in this world alone or to the enlargement of our spiritual powers? The difference is between getting and growing. The man whose career is given over to getting things is measured as a success according to the material wealth he has acquired. But the man who is a "growing man" is marked by his richness in grace, goodness and godliness.

There is in our time a most commendable spirit abroad in the hearts of our people leading them to seek the amelioration and upliftment of the conditions of life about us. There is an earnest desire among men of purpose everywhere to make the most out of life. We have small partings with the shirk and are getting to have less with the business slave. We read of the necessities and inexperience, too, of to-day. Our millionaires have gold galore for charities and rapid transit. Our hearts are appalled at the ignorance of thousands of men here in America and we build schools. We are told that in order to a successful social system the worker must have fair hours and a good wage. The luxuries of yesterday are the necessities and inexperience, too, of to-day.
